Custom beer pong tables with foldable and portable frame

Long description:

Ever wanted to design your own beer pong table? Well, now you can thanks to Prodigi. Our print technology allows you to print your original designs or branding on a regulation-sized table that's perfect for unforgettable game nights, corporate events or marketing promotions.

The foldable and portable design of this custom beer pong table means you can take the party with you wherever you go, whether it's a tailgate, a backyard BBQ or a day at the beach. Its waterproof and stain-resistant surface also means it's easy to clean and helps protect against accidental spillages.

We can print your design across the entire surface of the table or in designated areas, giving you complete creative freedom. We'll then dropship your personalised beer pong table on demand to your desired destination.
